

The questions we might ask:

- In what diverse ways are religions and belief traditions depicted in the media?
- What impact does this have on public perception of issues of religion and belief?
- What is the impact of different forms of media in promoting, disseminating and critically analysing religious beliefs and practices?

The ideas we might explore

- Different ways in which we communicate (linguistic, visual, musical, physical, etc.)
- The challenges of language in expressing meaning
- Definition of 'media' (print, social, visual, etc.)
- Diverse ways in which religion and non-religious belief systems are presented in the media (e.g. BBC Charter)
- Diverse ways in which religious and non-religious traditions utilise the media
- Influence of the media on public perception of religion/belief and religious literacy
