

KS3 RE Curriculum Plan (2-year KS3)

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Year 7	LAS Additional                      What is Religion?                      What is Belief?  Believing, Living, Thinking                      [How do we know? What is a truth claim? What is belief? How do different people define the term 'religion'?] B1a, B1b, B2b                      L1, L2, L4b                      T2, T3a, T3b	LAS Compulsory                      God – Christianity  Believing                      [What do Christians believe are the key attributes of God and how do they reason about the existence of God? What do Christians believe about God's relationship with/to humanity? What sources of authority do Christians use to inform their beliefs about God? In what diverse ways do Christians demonstrate their beliefs about God?] B1a, B1b, B2a                      L2                      T1, T2, T3a, T3b	LAS Compulsory                      Community – Christianity  Living                      [What kinds of Christian experiences are there? What range of Christian denominations are there in the UK and what are the similarities/differences in their expression of faith? How does a person become a Christian?] L1, L2, L3, L4a, L4b                      T1, T3a, T3b	LAS Compulsory                      God – Hinduism  Believing                      [What do Hindus believe about Brahman? What is the significance of murtis? What do Hindus believe about the relationship between individual deities and Brahman? In what way is the Hindu belief about the cyclical nature of the universe reflected by belief in the Trimurti?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b                      L2                      T1, T2, T3a, T3b OR LAS Compulsory                      God – Islam  Believing                      [How do Muslim beliefs connect with the Muslim understanding of Allah? What sources	LAS Compulsory                      Community – Hinduism  Living                      [Why might some Hindus choose to pursue the path of renunciation – sannyasa? What practical implications do some Hindu practices have for life in modern Britain? What is the significance of the Kumbh Mela?] L1, L2, L3, L4a, L4b                      T1, T3a, T3b OR LAS Compulsory                      Community – Islam  Living                      [How diverse in Islam in the UK and how important is this in the context of the Ummah (global Muslim community)? What	LAS Additional                      Philosophy and Religion:                      What is a 'good' life?  Thinking                      [What does the term 'good' mean? How do different religious and non-religious traditions define 'goodness'? What sources of authority provide religious and non-religious people with guidance on how to live a 'good' life?] B1a, B1b, B2b                      L1, L2, L4b                      T2, T3a, T3b

KS3 RE Curriculum Plan (2-year KS3)

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
				of authority do Muslims use to inform their beliefs about Allah? In what diverse ways do Muslims demonstrate their beliefs about Allah?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b L2 T1, T2, T3a, T3b	practical implications do some Muslim practices have for life in modern Britain?] L1, L2, L3, L4a, L4b T1, T3a, T3b
Why this? Why now?	This unit lays down some of the foundations for studying religion and worldviews at KS3. It introduces key vocabulary and builds on learning from KS2 about the way in which belonging to a community can shape a worldview and the way in which different people reason about the world around them.	This unit examines some of the core concepts and beliefs associated with a Christian worldview, and the ways in which different Christians express them in their lived reality. This builds on learning about Christian worldviews at KS2, including key beliefs about God, humanity and the world, sources of authority, and practices associated with worship, festivals, rites of passage and social action. It also lays down a platform for the study of Christian worldviews at KS4.	This unit takes a closer look at the richness and complexity of a Christian worldview with an emphasis on the diversity within Christianity. This builds on learning from the previous term. It also builds on learning at KS2, which explores different ways in which Christians around the world celebrate key festivals, worship, participate in rites of passage and engage in social action. It also lays down a platform for the study of Christian worldviews at KS4.	This unit examines some of the core concepts and beliefs associated with a Hindu or Muslim worldview, and the ways in which different Hindus or Muslim express them in their lived reality. This enables students to compare and contrast with a Christian worldview based on prior learning in the year. It also builds on learning about Hindu and Muslim worldviews at KS2, including key beliefs about God, humanity and the world, sources of authority, and practices associated with worship, festivals, rites of passage and	This unit takes a closer look at the richness and complexity of a Hindu or Muslim worldview with an emphasis on the diversity within Hinduism or Islam. This builds on learning from the previous term. It also builds on learning at KS2 that explores different ways in which Hindus and Muslims around the world celebrate key festivals, worship, participate in rites of passage and engage in social action. It also lays down a platform for the	This unit explores morality and the range of ways in which humans understand the term ‘good’. It draws on learning from across the year and also builds on learning in KS2, which explored different ways in which religious and non-religious articulate what it means to live a ‘good’ life. In this unit, students are expected to understand and be able to show more developed and complex processes of reasoning than would be expected at KS2.

KS3 RE Curriculum Plan (2-year KS3)

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
				social action. It also lays down a platform for the study of Hindu and Muslim worldviews at KS4.	study of Hindu and Muslim worldviews at KS4.
Year 8	LAS Compulsory Being Human – Christianity Believing [What core Christian beliefs/teachings influence Christian action in the world? How and why are Christians engaged in social action? What is the role of Christian missionaries and evangelists in the 21st century?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b L2, L3, L4a, L4b T1, T2, T3a, T3b	LAS Compulsory Being Human – Hinduism Believing [What affects Hindu beliefs and attitudes towards others and the environment? In what ways do the four varnas (social classes) impact upon Hindu society? How and why do Hindus engage in social action? What are the four paths (margas)?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b L2, L3, L4a, L4b T1, T2, T3a, T3b OR LAS Compulsory Being Human – Islam Believing [What core Muslim beliefs/teachings	LAS Compulsory Life Journey – Christianity Living [How do Christians’ beliefs about creation and humanity relate to their understanding of human relationships? How do symbols in the Christian marriage service reflect beliefs about God and humanity? How and why might Christians differ in their understanding of relationships, marriage, sexuality and gender? How do Christians understand death and dying?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b L2, L3, L4a, L4b T1, T2, T3a, T3b	LAS Compulsory Life Journey – Hinduism Living [What are the stages of life in Hindu belief and how are they reflected in Hindu practice? How do the key features of a Hindu marriage ceremony reflect Hindu beliefs about human relationships? Does sexuality and gender matter in Hinduism? What do Hindus believe about euthanasia, suicide, death and dying?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b L2, L3, L4a, L4b T1, T2, T3a, T3b OR LAS Compulsory	LAS Additional Religion, Belief and Creativity Believing, Living, Thinking [What different methods of communication and means of expressing knowledge, beliefs and feelings do human beings utilise? How do humans use creative expression and the creative arts to express their understanding of matters of belief and religion?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b L1, L2 T1, T2, T3a, T3b

KS3 RE Curriculum Plan (2-year KS3)

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
		influence Muslim action in the world? How and why do Muslims engage in social action? Why do Muslims understand struggle/effort (jihad) to be a key feature of their faith?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b L2, L3, L4a, L4b T1, T2, T3a, T3b		Life Journey – Islam Living [How do Muslim beliefs about Allah and humanity relate to a Muslim understanding of human relationships? What are the key features of a Muslim marriage ceremony? How might Muslims differ in their views about relationships, marriage, divorce, sexuality and gender? How do Muslim beliefs about death and the afterlife affect the way Muslims live their lives?] B1a, B1b, B2a, B2b L2, L3, L4a, L4b T1, T2, T3a, T3b
Why this? Why now?	This unit explores in detail Christian beliefs about humanity and the relationship between human beings and God, and human beings and the	This unit explores in detail Hindu or Muslim beliefs about humanity and the relationship between human beings and God, and human beings and the natural	This unit builds on learning in autumn term by exploring the diverse ways in which Christian interpret key sources of authority and live out their beliefs in the world.	This unit builds on learning in autumn term by exploring the diverse ways in which Hindus or Muslims interpret key sources of authority and live out their beliefs in	The learning in this year has focused on the ways in which a person’s beliefs underpin their action in the world. This unit explores different ways in which religious and non-religious people express their beliefs, with a focus on the creative arts. This builds on learning from KS2, where pupils have had the opportunity to

KS3 RE Curriculum Plan (2-year KS3)

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
	natural world. It emphasises the diversity of ways in which Christians interpret key sources of authority and act in the world. This builds on learning about Christian beliefs about humanity, God and the world and Christian social action from the previous year and from KS2. It also lays down a platform for the study of Christian worldviews at KS4.	world. It emphasises the diversity of ways in which Hindus or Muslims interpret key sources of authority and act in the world. It offers students the opportunity to compare and contrast with a Christian worldview based on their learning from the previous year and term. It also builds on learning from KS2 about Hindu and Muslim beliefs about humanity, God and the world and Hindu and Muslim social action. As well as this, it lays down a platform for the study of Hindu and Muslim worldviews at KS4.	It builds on learning from KS2 about key rites of passage in Christianity. It also lays down a platform for the study of Christian worldviews at KS4.	the world. It builds on learning from KS2 about key rites of passage in Hinduism and Islam. It also lays down a platform for the study of Hindu and Muslim worldviews at KS4.		explore some of the ways in which religious and non-religious people express themselves creatively.

Believing, Living, Thinking refers to the Balanced RE model for RE curriculum. You can find out more about this here.

The purple codes refer to suggested end-of-phase expectations: B = Believing, L = Living, T = Thinking

You can find out more about these end-of-phase expectations here.

For further support please visit the RE section of the Lincoln Diocesan Board of Education website or contact Gillian Georgiou, the Diocesan RE Adviser, here.