

English Leader's Training

with Jeannie Bulman

The programme aims will cover a range of aspects to support strong English subject leadership in schools:

- monitoring tasks: writing scrutinies, learning walks, observations and feedback, etc.
 - effective moderation of writing across all year groups;
 - developing others in school, through a range of models;
- identifying next steps for whole school development in English and action planning to meet these needs.

The course will also adopt a flexible approach to focuses which will develop an engaging English curriculum to raise attainment and motivation in specific areas.
